The Bandera Prophet

October 1, 2019

National Night Out local hot spots

The Bandera County Sheriff's Office with Warriors Heart at 756 Purple Sage in Bandera, from 5:30 p.m. to sundown. Featured are firetrucks, EMS, the Sheriff's Office, DPS, bounce houses, pool and DJ and live music. Hamburgers and hotdogs will be served.

The Medina Fire Department will host their National Night Out tomorrow with a hot dog and snow cone social, from 6-8 p.m., at the station house.

Castle Lake Ranch Volunteer Fire Department is hosting a National Night Out event at their firehouse, 3801 Bear Creek Road. A Keynote Presentation on Crime Prevention and Safety will be given by Ian S. "Buddy" Lovestock, a 42-year law enforcement veteran. Learn how to better secure your home, business and personal safety for yourself, your family and your employees.

The Pipe Creek Volunteer Fire Department is hosting a party at their fire station. Serving hot dogs, chips, cookies, and a bounce house.

The Medina Lake Volunteer Fire Department is hosting a National Night Out event at their station house, 10660 PR 37, from 6 - 8 p.m.