The early voting tally has been counted, and of 16,045 registered voters in Bandera County, 1,202 people cast their votes in the last two weeks.

Today, the polls will remain open until 7 p.m.

Voters of Precinct 305 will choose three Bandera City Council members, in addition to saying yay or nay to 10 proposed constitutional amendments.

To see the list of polling sites by precinct, go to www.banderaprophet.com/public-notices.html. For more information on candidates or the special election, go to www.banderaprophet.com/election.html.

The Bandera Prophet will report tonight's election results as soon as the unofficial report is released.
