LAMCOS

The Lake Medina Conservation Society, LAMCOS, has received a matching grant of $5,000. The grantors, Nancy and Casey Fox, will match all donations made before Dec. 31, up to $5,000, to raise funds to intensify the fight to permanently save Medina Lake.

The goal is $100,000 for lobbying efforts at the state level. A third of the funds have been met.

All donations will go to cover expenses. All LAMCOS members are volunteers.

Send donations to LAMCOS, P. O. Box 390, Lakehills, TX 78063. For more information, call Bobby Harris at 830-460-1654.

LAKEHILLS AREA LIBRARY

Rhonda Bayless, a professional artist from Comfort, will exhibit some of her oil paintings during December. Her works are available for purchase. Free math tutoring every Thursday, from 1 to 6 p.m., by a retired high school math teacher. Students must sign up at front desk for free tutoring.

Every Tuesday morning at 10:30 a Yoga class for all ages is available. Everyone should bring a mat and water.

Every Wednesday morning at 10:30 the library hosts story time for kiddos 2-5 years of age. It includes songs, games and crafts based in preschool curriculum.

The Writers Group will not meet in December.
The library will be closed Dec. 24-26 for Christmas.
