

The Bandera PROPHEET

June 23, 2020

Annual Pet Parade set for Saturday, July 4

The 24th annual Pet Parade, sponsored by the Cowboy Capital Pet Assistance League, will be Saturday, July 4, at Bandera City Park. Admission to the park is free for parade participants and attendees. The parade is open to dogs, cats, fish, horses, cows, llamas - anything you can lead, ride or carry. For those who don't have a pet - get creative! Awards will be given for star spangled honors (most patriotic), best of the Wild West, look-a-like, most talented, most original and favorite storybook character. Judge's pick for best of show and most creative. There is no contestant entry fee. For more information, call 210-705-4794. Registration begins at 9 a.m., judging starts at 9:30 a.m., the parade starts at 10 a.m.