The Bandera Lady Bulldogs added to their bid as a top team in the state 4A rankings with another strong showing at the second annual Comfort Billy Nabours Oktoberfest Invite on Saturday.

Raelynn Butler brought home the gold medal, Hannah Edwards finished third for the bronze and Morgan Cole was fifth as eight other Lady Bulldogs medaled to dominate the field.

Bandera was kept from a podium sweep by freshman Aly Wray from Lago Vista.

Lady Bulldog, Kaitlin Doebbler finished in 11th and Makayla Gonzales was the fifth points scorer for Bandera with a 14th place. Mallorie Powell, Trinity Butler, Danielle Gonzales and Gracie Bankston all medaled for the event.

Madison Gillaspie, in her first ever varsity race, finished in 35th, finishing ahead of some seasoned competitors in the field of 61 runners.
