

The Bandera PROPHEET

February 1, 2020

Bandera ISD Elementary students score big at UIL competition

Hill Country Elementary placed second overall, and Alkek Elementary placed third overall at the UIL competition in Llano last weekend.

Team results are as follows:

First place - fourth grade chess puzzles
Second place - fourth grade music memory
Second place - fifth grade social studies
Second place - third grade spelling
Second place - fifth grade spelling
Third place - fifth grade art smart
Third place - fifth grade chess puzzles
Third place - fifth grade dictionary skills
Third place - fifth grade listening
Third place - third grade music memory
Third place - fifth grade number sense

Individual results are as follows:

Second Grade

Harmony Williams - first creative writing
Hayden Mansfield - fourth chess puzzles
Killian Owens - fifth storytelling

Third Grade

Michael Ellingson - first chess puzzles, third (fourth grade) number sense, fifth (fifth grade) music memory
Jolene Black - second spelling, fifth (fourth grade) music memory
Jaxon Bower - third storytelling
Paisley Mears - third ready writing, fourth spelling, sixth storytelling

Brinley Newman - fourth music memory, sixth ready writing
Katelyn Moore - sixth music memory, Best Alternate chess puzzles

Fourth Grade

Malcolm Black - first music memory, second chess puzzles, second spelling

Luke Greebon - first chess puzzles, sixth music memory

Taylor Marrs - second ready writing

Briley Clark - fifth art smart

William De La Paz - sixth art smart

Fifth Grade

Seth Sarazua - first social studies

Tessa Mason - second spelling Abby Sizemore - second oral reading

Samantha Sardo - fifth oral reading

Jaymin Klein - fifth chess puzzles, fifth maps, graphs charts, fifth spelling

Mariska Collazo - sixth listening

Remi Galloway - sixth art smart

Jonah Klein - sixth chess puzzles

Brianna Moore - sixth ready writing

Lilyann Cox - Best Alternate ready writing