Corrine,

Oh sweet Riney, I will always remember your radiating smile! It's just so beautiful and full of truth and honesty! It just shows your heart! You are a beautiful girl on the inside and out and I know you will go far in life. Not only because you're a good student and athlete, but because you are a faithful woman of God. You know right from wrong and you stand behind the truth!

I will miss that beautiful smile of yours, and those big sweet hugs, but I will see you in church when you come to visit and expect those hugs in spite of this distancing stuff!

Congratulations!

Logan, Son from another mother, you are like another brother for Solomon, but your friendship is so different than his and his brothers- he rather hang with you! I guess you don't get on his nerves like siblings can do!

I will miss your sweaty bear hugs after games, backed up with your big smiles or even your angry/disappointed face. I know your love of the game, the passion you and Solomon shared for the game (and for video games)! Thank you for being there for Solomon during the good times, the tough times and the ordinary times throughout high school! May God bless you and protect you in whatever your life plans may be!

Love, Mama MacNeil

Solomon, you have always been a good kid and your own person. I'm so proud of you. You told me you want to be an engineer which I think you'll accomplish. You've got the determination to succeed. I wish I could have gone to your graduation but I was cheering you on from Florida. Go Sol. Love you. Your grandmother, Sarita

Solomon,

We have watched you grow and our two boys have grown right along with you (albeit 4 and 6 years younger). If you ask Dylan or Breydan who their favorite football player is in Bandera they would say Sol! Your work ethic is amazing and many of the boys & girls of Bandera who have seen you referee their games during Basketball Season appreciate you being out on the court.

God has great things for you and we all know that your leadership skills will take you far. Thank you for being a shining light of example to our young athletes and young men.

Ron and Lisa Gherman

Solomon,

Be proud of how far you have come!! Keep your faith strong the world is tough .... there will always be some kind of "wall" .... track them as best as you can. Remember you have your parents, family and friends that are here if you need guidance ....we may not have all the answers but amongst all of us we can figure it out. Believe in yourself.... so on to your next chapter. God bless and keep you in his loving care always.

Love ya!!!! Ana+Jeff

Solomon, you have been waiting for this day for over 12 years. You have worked very hard. You have had a lot of hurdles that you struggled to climb. You succeeded in many ways. You can be proud of all your accomplishments.

Now it's time to climb another rung in the ladder of life. This rung will have a great effect for the rest of your life.

Thank God that you have had and will continue having a loving supportive family every step of the way.

Wishing you the very best!!

Solomon, It has been a blessing watching you grow from a child to a man. We are confident you will continue to succeed in life. Keep working hard because the Best is Yet to Come! The Love Family

Dear Sol, you are beginning a new chapter of becoming a remarkable young man. I pray you remember how you've gotten this far, your faith, and the tremendous love and support of your family. Know I will pray for you everyday, and remember you have Jesus in front of you and an army of prayer warriors at your back! Good Faith!

Love, Ms. Elva

Dear Solomon,

Time flies! It seems just like yesterday that we watched you at Little League, and now we are seeing you off to college. You decided to go to California to become an engineer. You are a credit to your community, your church and your family. We are so proud of you!! We wish you every blessing on your college journey.

All our love,

Grandpa Dan & Nana Connie

Congratulations
Greg Selement!!

SON, I CLOSED MY EYES FOR
BUT A MOMENT AND SUDDENLY
A MAN STOOD WHERE A BOY
USED TO BE. I MAY NOT CARRY
YOU NOW IN MY ARMS BUT I WILL ALWAYS CARRY YOU
IN MY HEART. YOU HAVE GIVEN
ME SO MANY REASONS TO BE PROUD OF THE MAN YOU HAVE BECOME, BUT THE PROUDEST
MOMENT FOR ME IS TELLING
OTHERS THAT YOU ARE MY SON.
I LOVE YOU NOW AND FOREVER

Emmett,
 You and Solomon go way back- to when we first moved here! HCE days! I want to thank you for being Solomon's friend, classmate and teammate. I also want to congratulate you on all your achievements. Especially your conversion to God and your faith! It's a beautiful thing to know the love of our Father and I am so glad that you found it! I pray that your faith remains strong when the mountains seem too steep and when the valleys seem too deep, remember His love will guide you through any struggle you may face!
 Remain faithful, Mama MacNeil

Congrats
 Graduates!

Solomon, there are so many things I could say, but I will keep it simple. I remember you as a little five year old watching your brothers practice on the football field. I remember never being able to get you to sit with me in the shade, you shadowed your dad and he just started chugging the ball to you. It was as big as you were, but you continued to try and catch it and never gave up.

I remember watching your own throws turn from wobbly unsteady balls to bullets through the air and I knew - you had a gift, a vision, a talent. I will never forget the strength you showed through two major surgeries and how determined you were to come back strong. I don't know if that was your faith in God because you're the strong silent type, but I know that you never gave up! You fought to prove yourself and with the help of your team took the Bulldogs to the playoffs for the FIRST TIME in a decade! Beautiful things come out of prayer and I prayed for you, your health and your will to battle! God loves you and He will always fight your battles! You just have to ask! Keep Him with you always, no matter what you plan on doing! Congratulations Sol!

Love you always and forever my ABSOLUTE middle child,
Ma

Solomon MacNeil is a special Man. He carries himself with strong confidence and has a gentle smile that is warm and kind. He thirsts to grow his knowledge, understanding and ability. My last visit to see my Texas family was brief, but Solomon and I managed to chat about family folklore, sports stories and share many laughs. When he should have stayed put on the couch to heal after a sports injury, Solomon continuously returned to the kitchen to help. It symbolized everything I see in him - effort in the face of adversity, calmness and aptitude, and he was staying positive the whole time!

I was saddened to think of all the seniors this year who will not have their graduation ceremony in the traditional manner. But I know that there is something to be gained from this different experience and I am proud of to say I believe Solomon MacNeil will find that positive avenue!
With love, Uncle Tim
