Fatal shooting suspect Austin Small was released from custody Wednesday on a $125,000 bond, according to authorities. Small, 25, is facing charges of murder, two counts of deadly conduct and child endangerment.

Bandera resident Zachary Bower, 22, died Sunday night after being shot in the head just outside the Bandera city limits on Houston Street, according to reports.

Small was arrested in the early morning hours of Feb. 1. He was apprehended by Kerrville law enforcement officers and turned over to the Texas Rangers and the Bandera County Sheriff's Office.
