

The Bandera PROPHEET

March 17, 2021

Bandera man indicted for murder, deadly conduct

By Jessica Nohealapa'ahi Goode
The Bandera Prophet

Bandera man Austin Small was true billed March 9 by the 198th Judicial District Grand Jury, confirming his Feb. 1 arrest after the shooting of Zachary Bower. He was arrested again March 11, and bonded out the same day. Small, 25, faces one charge of murder, two charges of deadly conduct and one charge of child endangerment.

Bandera County Chief Deputy Matt King said in addition to issuing the indictment, the grand jury increased the bond for the murder charge from $100,000 to $200,000.

Small's arraignment, during which his attorneys will identify themselves and enter his plea to the court, will take place March 22.