The Latest at the Bandera Library

By Mauri Guillén Fagan
Bandera Library Director

Bandera's Official Pokemon League meets at the Library on Mondays from 4: 30 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the Downstairs Meeting Room. If you want to learn how to play Pokemon: Trading Card Game (TCG), exchange your favorite anime or just meet other local Pokemon fans, come by! Friday, Aug. 13, from 5 - 7 p.m., the library will host the Bandera Chamber of Commerce's monthly Cork Poppers. All are welcome to this networking and socializing event. Please bring a bottle of wine and an appetizer to share.

During the Cork Popper event, the library will also host local author and cartoon-drawing cowboy, Dennis Allyn for a book signing. Allyn has recently published a collection of his editorial cartoons called "Bandera Politics (Dennis Allyn Unchained)."

School is starting again next week and everyone here would like wish the students, teachers, aids, administrators and staff the best of the luck. The Bandera Library is here to support your needs. If your child or teen needs help with research, sign up for our ongoing program Book-A-Librarian. The library staff is happy to help walk your student through all the information and data available through the library's electronic resources.

With your library card, researchers of all ages have access to thousands of academic and educational articles, photographs, videos, and graphs for free. We will even help you write your citations. Call or email the library to book a librarian.

New titles this week include Catherine Coulter's latest FBI thriller called "Vortex." Agents Sherlock and Savich are working on two cases that put them each in pursuit of the truth and trouble not far behind. Agent Sherlock's case involves a young political investigative journalist in New York City named Mia Briscoe. Seven years ago, Mia went to a huge frat party with her college best friend Serena. A fire broke out in the frat house, and everyone was safe and accounted for except for Serena. She left no trace behind. Years later, Mia discovers photographs taken the night of the fire and starts connecting the dots. Very powerful and dangerous people begin to make Mia and Agent Sherlock's lives quite uncomfortable as they get nearer the truth. Agent Savich also has his hands full. Savich is assigned a recuperating CIA operative recently returned from Iran. A grenade has almost killed her and the teammate who saved her life is MIA along with a critical flash drive. What intelligence did this drive carry that would cause the agent to run?

The Bandera Library is open Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Saturdays 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Curbside service is available for checkouts and business services. Free Wi-Fi is available 24/7. Masks are recommended while in the library building. Check out our website www.banderacountylibrary.org for all up-to-date information.

Happy tales, y'all.
