

The Bandera PROPHET

September 9, 2021

Olivia the Dinosaur takes first place in Labor Day Parade

By Jessica Nohealapa'ahi
The Bandera Prophet

This year's Labor Day festivities included a weekend-long itinerary of events that only Bandera can offer. Ranch and women's rodeos, courthouse yard market days, cowboy breakfasts, gunfight reenactments and a parade that features an award-winning dinosaur float.

The parade winners, chosen by the Bandera County Chamber of Commerce, are as follows:

Business Category:

1st Place: Bandera Natural History Museum

2nd Place: Outlaw Outfitters

3rd Place: Warriors Heart

City/Festival Category:

1st Place: Poteet Strawberry Festival

2nd Place: Medina Cajun Festival

3rd Place: Bandera ProRodeo Association

Horse and Western Category:

1st Place: Cowboy Capital Regulators

2nd Place: Hill Country State Natural Area Junior Rangers

3rd Place: Cowboy Capital Trail Riders

Misc Category:

1st Place: Bandera County Republican Women

2nd Place: Lions Club

3rd Place: Bandera 4H Shotgun Club