Early voting will begin Monday for positions on the Bandera City Council and Bandera ISD Board of Trustees, as well as eight proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution.

The candidates for three at-large positions are incumbents Jerry Russe, Rebeca Gibson and Christine Morse, and Robbie Pierce. Robbin Lynch is registered as a candidate, however her plans to move out of the city limits were confirmed after it was too late to withdraw. The city said Lynch, if elected, will concede.

The candidates for the BISD Board of Trustees are Place 3: Jerry Shrum and Tiffany Kanatani Hayes; and Place 4: incumbent Bo Mansfield.

A Pre-Election Community Meeting will be held Sunday, Oct. 17, at 4:30 p.m., at the Lakehills Community Center, 11225 PR 37. Voters will meet the candidates and have an opportunity to learn about the eight proposed amendments. Read more about the amendments at www.banderaprophet.com/election.html.
