The Bandera Prophet

March 1 was a good day for Bandera Athletics with both boy's soccer teams, both baseball teams and both softball teams getting wins.

Baseball

Both of the Bulldog baseball squads garnered a "W" with the JV romping to an 18-1 win in three innings over Ingram. Layne Bourgeois and Alex Dirck combined for the win with Bourgeois going two innings on the mound and Dirck, one.

The team will have a double header against Boerne on the road Tuesday wil game one starting at 5 p.m.

The varsity game was much closer with Bandera winning by a 4-1 tally. Riley Haley got the start and had 10 K's in five innings while giving up the one unearned run to the Warriors. Barrett Waid got the save, pitching the final two innings and getting 3 K's along the way.

Coach Cody Fields cited the defensive play of Jesse Cardenas, Jackson Vogel, Randon Wheeler and Waid helping to keep things under control.

The varsity will head to Somerset this weekend for the South Texas Slugfest tournament with scheduled games against Holy Cross, Somerset, Boerne Geneva and S.A. McCollum.

Soccer

Boys

JV

Varsity

Bandera came from behind after going down early to get a 3-2 win over the visiting Canyon Lake Hawks.
