April 12, 2022

Letter to the Editor

I've lived in Lakehills since 2018 and when I looked up the census records we have the largest population in Bandera county....but for some reason we do not have our own post office. We have a tax office and we have a Municipal Court... but no post office. How could this come about? Why does the largest population have to drive to a neighboring town to collect their mail?

Amanda Furr
Lakehills