Texas summer nights mean barbecue and baseball. This September, Bandera County residents are invited to indulge over Labor Day weekend - after an afternoon at the grill, drive over to Wolff Stadium and cheer on the San Antonio Missions.

Hosted by the City of Bandera, Section 200 has been reserved for Bandera Community Night. Discounted $15 tickets will be available until Aug. 2 for the Saturday, Sept. 3 game, when the Missions will challenge the Corpus Christi Hooks. Game time is 7 p.m., followed by a post-game fireworks show. Bandera Marshal Will Dietrich will throw the first pitch.

Other Bandera community members will also be featured performing the National Anthem and Presentation of the Colors. The discount - worth up to $44 - is available to all county residents.

Tickets must be purchased at the link by Aug. 2 to receive the discount:
