Cajun Festival cooking fun

On Thursday, July 7, at 9 a.m., the Medina Lake Cajun Festival and Lakehills Community Center volunteers will work on food preparation for the 41st annual Cajun Festival to be held in September.

The Cajun Festival is held each year at the center's major fundraiser for local community center events and programs.

No need to call or sign up....just show up to help cook some great Cajun dishes for this year's Cajun Festival.
