Bandera Public Library

If you are looking for something to keep you busy this summer, look no further than the Bandera Kronkosky Public Library. We have weekly programming almost every day of the week to keep everyone of all ages busy. Pokémon League, Dungeons & Dragons, watercolor classes, Girls Who Code, children's story time and so much more are all waiting for you to join.

Do you want to learn how to play Pokémon TCG, video games or just meet other Pokémon fans? Then join the Bandera Pokémon League. The League meets in our Downstairs meeting room, Mondays at 4:30 p.m. Email banderapokemonleague@gmail.com for more information on the Bandera Pokémon League or follow the Bandera Pokémon League on Facebook for updates!

Are you looking for a new adventure? After a short break, our weekly Dungeons & Dragons group is back. Every Saturday, from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., the group meets to slay dragons, fight pirates or explore the jungle all from the safety of our Downstairs Meeting Room. Heroes of all ages and skill level are welcome to join. Start your next adventure this Saturday.

New titles this week include Mark Greaney's "Armored." This novel is inspired by Greaney's Audible Original drama of the same name. Joshua Duffy is a Close Protection Agent—a professional bodyguard—and he's one of the world's elite operatives. That is, he was until his last mission in Lebanon. Against all odds, Josh got his primary out alive, but the cost was high. Josh lost his lower left leg. There's not much call for an elite bodyguard with such an injury. So, Josh has to support his family working as a mall cop in New Jersey. For a man like Josh, this is purgatory on earth, but miracles can occur even in Paramus. A lucky run-in with an old comrade promises to get Josh back in the field for one last job. The UN is sending a peace mission into the Sierra Madre mountains in Mexico, an area so dangerous it's known as Espinazo del Diablo—the Devil's Spine. Only a fool would think they could broker peace between the homicidal drug cartels in the region, and only a madman would sign on to keep those fools alive.
