Boerne Performing Arts ticket sales open for a single show or season

Secure your seats for a single show or an entire season of international adventure with sounds, sights and experiences from Canada, China, the country of Georgia, and even Broadway, USA - all from Boerne's Samuel V. Champion Auditorium

As of Nov. 1, patrons may purchase individual tickets for any of the concerts coming in Boerne Performing Arts' 11th season. Season tickets will continue to be offered for those who don't want to miss a moment of the internationally acclaimed performances coming to impress audiences and students through performances, outreach concerts and master classes.

As a holiday special event before the globe-trotting eleventh season begins, Canadian Brass will be here on Dec. 15, with their unique blend of brass instruments presenting jubilant arrangements of beloved Christmas songs. Perfect for an early holiday gift for yourself, friends or family, come celebrate the arts and the holidays with Canadian Brass' trademark genre-mixing renditions and experience their take on ringing in the Christmas season.

On Jan. 26, 2023, "The Four Phantoms in Concert," featuring an extraordinary quartet of performers, all of whom have performed the leading role as the Phantom in the Tony Award winning musical The Phantom of the Opera as well as a special guest, the youngest soprano to perform the role of Christine from The Phantom of the Opera on Broadway. It promises to be a masterful evening of entertainment honoring the many composers and artists who have made the Broadway musical an American art form.

On Feb. 24, 2023, a rare opportunity for arts lovers to enjoy the colorful sights, sounds and fancy footwork of the ROYAL NATIONAL DANCE COMPANY from the country of Georgia. In the “Fire of Georgia,” this visually thrilling dance troupe combines Georgian folk dances and a modern attitude with exquisite costumes to artfully blend the professional devotion of classically trained dancers with the unique choreography of the traditional dances from the Caucasus region of Asia. To complete the season on March 24, 2023, The Peking Acrobats, joined by members of the Shanghai Circus, will form an extensive cast of experts in awe-inspiring gymnastics, precision tumbling and much more. You will experience hold-your-breath moments as they defy gravity with amazing displays of contortion, balance, strength and agility in an evening of family fun for all ages.

Thanks to the continued financial support of Boerne Performing Arts’ patrons, corporate sponsors, and generous donors, ticket prices for the 2023 season will remain unchanged from their prior levels. As of Nov. 1, tickets for all four performances may be purchased individually ($60 - $40 - $30 - $20 student). Season ticket packages for the 3-concert series are also available. Please note: The Canadian Brass holiday performance is a special event and is an additional ticket to the three-concert regular series.
