

The Bandera PROPHEET

November 16, 2022

Keep in Beat with the Bandera Library

By Mauri Guillén Fagan
Bandera Library Director

Believe it or not Thanksgiving is only a week away. As a reminder, the library will be closed Thursday, Nov. 24 until Sunday, Nov. 27 for the holiday. If you are like me and get anxious if you don't have enough to read, stop by the Friends of the Library Book Nook in the library and pick up a few extra books. You can call those your emotional support paperbacks. As always, the books in the Nook are available by donation and the proceeds go to the purchase of new books for the library collection.

Programming will continue as usual the week of Thanksgiving including the Watercolor class at 10 a.m. and the Bandera Pokemon League at 4 p.m. on Monday. Wednesday at 10 a.m. is our Country and Western music group in the Downstairs Meeting Room. December will be a particularly busy month. The best way to keep up is to subscribe to our newsletter. It is a once-a-month email (Scout's honor), and it lists all the wonderful things happening at your Bandera library.

Be sure to have the following events on your calendar. On Friday, Dec. 2, from 5 - 8 p.m., the library will be having a holiday open house/party. Families can bring their kids to enjoy the bouncy house, fresh popcorn and then snuggle up on the back patio for a screening of Home Alone. This is the final event celebrating the library's 90th birthday. Bring your own camp chairs and blankets.

On Thursday, Dec. 8, the library is hosting author Elizabeth Crook for An Evening With An Author. Come by to talk about Crook's novels and her latest projects. Her well-known novel "The Which Way Tree" is set in the hills surrounding Camp Verde. There will be light refreshments provided. All are welcome.

The Bandera Kronkosky Public Library is open Monday to Friday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Curbside service is still available for checkouts and business services. Free Wi-Fi is available 24/7. Stay up to date with library events by following us on Facebook (@Bandera County Library), Instagram (@banderalibrary), or sign up for our monthly newsletter through our website.

Happy tales, y'all.