Masonic Children & Family Services of Texas awarding $2,500 scholarships

The Masonic Children & Family Services of Texas has begun accepting applications from high school students for scholarships to attend accredited colleges, universities or approved trade schools. Each scholarship this year will be in the amount of $2,500, deposited into the student's account at their college.

The deadline to apply is April 30.

Selection will be based on the following criteria:

- Career goals which will be enabled by higher education
- Community activities over the past few years
- Academic achievements
- School activities
- Financial need
- Employment experience
- Masonic Affiliations
- Services Previously Received from Masonic Children & Family Services of Texas
- Letters of Recommendation

A limited number of scholarships are available, and priority will be given to Masonic affiliation. Race or ethnic considerations are not asked for nor considered. Funding is not guaranteed and is based upon the availability of funds. The ultimate determination on the awarding of scholarships will be made by the Masonic Children & Family Services of Texas in its sole discretion. Proof of registration for classes will be required before funds are deposited.
