Bash at the Brewery

By Garl Tharp

BGC Bandera Unity Director, Hill Country Unit

On Saturday Nov. 18, Dogg Pound Championship Wrestling will put on a wrestling event at Bandera Brewery.

We are very excited about this collaboration with Dogg Pound Championship Wrestling. They have been active in reaching out to our kids. Owners and former WWE wrestlers Jazz and Rodney Mack, and many of the other wrestlers have visited our members on many occasions, encouraging them to be productive members of their community.

This event is family friendly, and watching the kids interact with the wrestlers is worth the price of admission alone. This is our second event with them, and they are bringing in many professional wrestlers from all over Texas.

We would like to thank all of the local businesses who sponsored this event. We feel very fortunate to have such a giving community, and hope that through doing events with like-minded people we can inspire our club members and other kids in the community to carry on these qualities.

The money from this event will go toward our Thanksgiving Meal Giveaway, and our Christmas Meal and Toy Giveaway. For every paid adult admission, one child gets in free. Meet and greet with the wrestlers starts at 6 p.m., with a 7 p.m. bell time. Jimmy Burger will be open offering great food.

Tickets for the event are $15 - $3 from each ticket sold will go to the Boys & Girls Club of Bandera and the Silver Sage. Tickets are available the day of the show at the Bandera Brewery. Attendees are asked to consider donating of a jar of peanut butter for the Silver Sage's Meals on Wheels program.

The Bandera Brewery is at 3540 Hwy. 16 S, Bandera.
