

February 23, 2024

BISD is going to a four day school week. What are the parents going to do with their children on that fifth day? They have to work and childcare costs more than they make at work. I guess they will have to quit their jobs to take care of their children. Will this work? The impact on our economy could be disastrous.

Richard Snyder