

The Bandera PROPHEET

March 15, 2024

Fundraiser helps veterans and first responders Ride and Rise Above out of the darkness of depression

By Jessica Nohealapa'ahi
The Bandera Prophet

The 9th annual Ride & Rise Above benefit is set for Saturday, April 27. The money raised will be donated to local non-profits that provide direct assistance to veterans and first responders who suffer from PTSD and depression.

Ride registration begins at 9 a.m., at the Gravity Check Saloon. Cost per rider is $25, and includes a T-shirt. Kick Stand Up at 10 a.m. Live music, food and drinks will be served after the ride. Opening ceremonies and a live auction will begin at 1 p.m.

Following the Ride & Rise Above, the 2nd annual Gone But Not Forgotten Run Memorial Day Weekend Motorcycle Ride will take place May 25. Kick Stands Up at 12:30 p.m., at the Red Horse Saloon in Bandera. The approximately 120-mile ride will make three stops, honoring fallen warriors.

For more information, go to <https://rideandriseabove.org/>