On Saturday, March 30, Bandera County will transform into an Easter egg-stravaganza. Parties, parades, egg hunts and more are planned from Bandera to Lakehills, all spaced apart for peeps to bunny hop from one to the other.

~ Bandera's annual Easter Parade will begin at Bandera City Park, 1102 Maple Street, at 10 a.m. Registration opens at 9 a.m. Awards will be given to the Best Easter Bonnet, Best Easter Fedora/Hat.

~ The first Easter egg hunt of the day, a multi-church collaboration, will take place at the First Baptist Church of Bandera, 1302 Pecan Street, at 10:45 a.m.

~ An Easter egg hunt and special visit with Olivia the Dinosaur will follow at the Bandera Natural History Museum, 267 Old San Antonio Road, Bandera. The hunt for more than 1,000 colorful, filled eggs will begin at 1 p.m. sharp.

~ An Easter party and egg hunt will begin at 2 p.m., at the Lakehills Community Center, 11225 PR 37. Kids between 1 and 12 will begin their hunt for more than 3,500 filled eggs at 2:30 sharp. Festivities, including games with prizes and crafts, will continue until 4 p.m. Bring your own basket; bags will also be provided.
