

The Bandera PROPHEET

September 25, 2024

Triple H Equitherapy celebrates arena cover with ribbon cutting

By Jessica Nohealapa'ahi
The Bandera Prophet

Triple H Equitherapy commemorated its new outdoor arena cover with a celebratory ribbon cutting.

Last Friday, friends and supporters gathered to enjoy brisket sliders and good company after recognizing the arena cover, made possible by donors Gene and Diane Skillrud. Under the cover, the arena is 18 degrees cooler in the summer, and activities in the arena will be available when it rains.

Triple H Equitherapy, a non-profit therapeutic riding center accredited by the Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International, is located at 791 Backhaus Road, in Pipe Creek. For more information, go to <https://www.triple-h.org/>