Lynn Palmer announces for Bandera City Council

To the registered voters of the City of Bandera, for those who don't know me my name is Lynn Palmer, I am an incumbent candidate for the Bandera City Council Election on Nov. 5, 2019.

The Cowboy Capitol of the World has been my home since 1977. My previous experience serving the citizens of Bandera was from 2001 to 2008. I was appointed by Council to fill a vacant position in June of 2017 and elected in November 2017. My husband John Palmer and I have owned a local business since 1999. I believe this background helps me to meet some of the challenges the city faces.

I am excited about the positive progress the City has made in the last two years and would like to continue to serve the citizens and the community of Bandera with your support.

It is important to listen to our residents and business owners so that as a Councilperson we are making the best decisions for Bandera's future. In order for our City to have a tomorrow we have to take action today.

Please get out and vote in the City Election, it is your chance to choose your leaders. Thank you for your support.
