Governor invited to be guest speaker at Bandera gala

Governor Greg Abbott will make a special appearance in Bandera this Friday. According to representatives at the Office of the Governor, Abbott was invited by the Bandera County Republican Party to attend the Stars at Night Gala as the guest speaker. He will talk about the success of the 86th legislative session and the “need to keep Texas red.”

This is the only event he has scheduled during his Bandera visit, the representative said, adding Abbott is expected to take the podium at 7:40 p.m.

Tickets to attend the gala, held at the Flying L Guest Ranch, are $100 per seat. To meet Abbott, host committee tickets are available for $150. A table for eight is $1,000; a host committee table for eight is $1,200.
