

The Bandera PROPHEET

October 4, 2022

Gone Country, this is a great story. To hear her point of view about her reunion, her old friends, the carpet and her bra is hilarious. I wish I could've been there, in person, with her. We'd have a great time together.

I look forward to read On this Day In Tx History. I love the history, the stories I've never heard.

Keep up the great work.
